Arcus Infrastructure Partners makes Senior Investment Director appointment

LONDON, United Kingdom (22 July 2020) - Arcus Infrastructure Partners (“Arcus”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Feriel Feghoul to the role of Senior Investment Director.

Ms Feghoul will join Arcus on the 27th July following over a decade long career in infrastructure investing. Most recently, she was a Director at Wren House Infrastructure with a focus on the origination and asset management of transport assets across different regions. Prior to Wren House, Ms Feghoul was an Investment Associate at PSP Investments, a global infrastructure investor, based in Montreal, Canada. While at PSP Investments, Ms Feghoul worked closely with the Arcus team on several AEIF1 investments - Forth Ports, Angel and Alpha Trains.

“We are pleased to welcome such a high calibre professional to the Arcus team. Having known and worked with Feriel for many years, we have no doubt that she will be a valuable addition to the Arcus team “ said Ian Harding, Co-Managing Partner at Arcus.

This new addition brings Arcus Investment team to 28 professionals, following the recent hires of four new investment professionals, strengthening Arcus diverse origination and asset management capabilities in Europe. Arcus is currently investing its most recent fund, AEIF2, which earlier in the year held its final closing at EUR 1.22bn.
